

BY Signs and Wonders, God affirmed the ministry of Jesus the Christ :

Miracles in the New Testament. As with the Old Testament, the New Testament miracles are essentially expressions of God's salvation and glory.

Why did Jesus perform miracles? Jesus answered this question Himself. When in prison, John the Baptist sent some of his disciples to Jesus to see if He was the "one to come" <Matt. 11:3>. Jesus told them to inform John of what He had done: "The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor" <11:5>. With these words, Jesus declared that His miracles were the fulfillment of the promises of the Messiah's kingdom as foretold by Isaiah <24:18-19; 35:5-6; 61:1>. Jesus' miracles were signs of the presence of the kingdom of God <Matt. 12:39>.

This theme of the miracles pointing to the kingdom of God was developed and deepened especially in the Gospel of John. John presented the miracles of Jesus as "signs" on seven occasions: <John 2:1-11; 4:46-54; 5:1-18; 6:1-15; 6:16-21; 9:1-41; 11:1-57>. He thought of these miracles as pointing to deep spiritual truth, demanding obedient faith <John 2:11,23-25>. Thus, Jesus' feeding miracle <6:1-15> was Jesus' presentation of Himself as the True Manna, the one who gives life and sustenance.

Jesus also understood His miracles as evidences of the presence of the kingdom in His ministry <Matt. 11:2-5; 12:28>. Every miracle story was a sign that God's salvation was present. But not only did the kingdom come; it came in great power, because the dead were raised <Is. 26:19; Luke 7:11-15> and Satan was bound <Mark 3:27>.

Jesus' miracles were also performed upon the most unlikely people. Jesus consciously brought the salvation of God to those who were rejected. He healed the lame <Matt. 9:1-8>, the dumb <Matt. 9:32-33>, and lepers <Luke 17:11-19>. Jesus brought the kingdom to all, regardless of their condition.

But Jesus' miracles were not theatrical sensations. He demanded faith of others <Matt. 9:2>. The hemorrhaging woman was healed because of her faith <Matt. 9:18-26>. Furthermore, Jesus expected the disciples to do miracles and rebuked them for their "little faith" and unbelief <Matt. 17:20>.

Finally, we gain a deeper understanding of Jesus in His miracles. He is Lord over nature <Mark 4:35-41> and death <Luke 8:41-56; John 11:1-44>. He is the Suffering Servant who bears the infirmities of others <Matt. 8:16-17>. He is the Messiah who was to come <Matt. 11:2-6>. He fights the battle against evil <Mark 3:23-30; Luke 11:18-23>.

Jesus did not work miracles to prove His deity or His messiahship. In fact, He clearly refused to work miracles as proofs <Matt. 12:38-42; Luke 11:29-32>. His death was the proof to Israel. However, Jesus' miracles do give evidence that He was divine, that He was the Son of God, the Messiah. <16; 9:32-35; 9:36-42>. 9 Fear the LORD, you his saints, for those who fear him lack nothing.

Healing of the Nobleman's son

John 4:46: So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47: When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48: Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49: The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50: Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51: And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52: Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53: So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54: This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

Water made wine

John 2:1: And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

2: And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3: And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4: Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5: His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6: And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7: Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8: And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9: When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10: And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11: This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

The great fisherman

- 1: And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,
- 2: And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.
- 3: And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.
- 4: Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.
- 5: And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.
- 6: And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.
- 7: And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.
- 8: When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.
- 9: For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:
- 10: And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.
- 11: And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

Again

- John 21:6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.
- 7: Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.
 - 8: And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.
 - 9: As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.
 - 10: Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.
 - 11: Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
 - 12: Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.
 - 13: Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.
 - 14: This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

This illustrates how God is in control and is fully able to supply all your needs when you trust him in all things to provide for you.

The Demoniac in the Synagogue healed

Luke 4:33-36
Mark 1:23-26

Isa 52:8-10

8 Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they shout for joy. When the LORD returns to Zion, they will see it with their own eyes.

9 Burst into songs of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD will lay bare his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

(NIV)

23: And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24: Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25: And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26: And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27: And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28: And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

Simon's wife's mother healed

Matt 8:14-15

Mark 1:29-31

Luke 4:38-39

Mark 1:29: And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30: But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31: And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

Luke 4:38-39

38 Jesus left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Jesus to help her.

39 So he bent over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She got up at once and began to wait on them.
(NIV)

Isa 53:1-4

1 Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

2 He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.

3 He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted.

Isa 52:6-7

6 Therefore my people will know my name; therefore in that day they will know that it is I who foretold it. Yes, it is I."

7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Miracles in Jerusalem

John 2:23

23: Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

Isa 52:13-15

13 See, my servant will act wisely; he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.

14 Just as there were many who were appalled at him-- his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man and his form marred beyond human likeness--

15 so will he sprinkle many nations, and kings will shut their mouths because of him. For what they were not told, they will see, and what they have not heard, they will understand.

(NIV)

Isa 53:4

4 Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted.

(NIV)

Leper cleansed

Isa 54:9-10

9 "To me this is like the days of Noah, when I swore that the waters of Noah would never again cover the earth. So now I have sworn not to be angry with you, never to rebuke you again.

10 Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

(NIV)

Isa 55:6-7

6 Seek the LORD while he may be found; call on him while he is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way and the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn to the LORD, and he will have mercy on him, and to our God, for he will freely pardon.

(NIV)

Matt. 4:23-24

Heals the Paralytic

Matt. 9:1-8

Mark 2:1-12

Luke 5:17-26

17: And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18: And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19: And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20: And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21: And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22: But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23: Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24: But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25: And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26: And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

Dan 7:13-14

13 "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence.

14 He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

(NIV)

Isa 53:11-12

11 After the suffering of his soul, he will see the light and be satisfied; by his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore I will give him a portion among the great, and he will divide the spoils with the strong, because he poured out his life unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors. For he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

(NIV)

John 17:1-4

1 After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven and prayed: "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you.

2 For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him.

3 Now this is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

4 I have brought you glory on earth by completing the work you gave me to do.

Healing of the impotent Man

Isa 53:4-5

4 Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted.

5 But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed. (NIV)

Ps:6:2: Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

Ps:30:2: O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

Ps:41:4: I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

Ps:42:11: Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

Ps:43:5: Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

John 5:1-16

1: After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2: Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3: In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. 4: For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5: And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6: When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? 7: The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. 8: Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. 9: And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. 10: The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11: He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. 12: Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? 13: And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14: Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15: The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16: And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17: But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18: Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19: Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20: For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21: For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22: For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23: That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24: Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

25: Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26: For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27: And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28: Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29: And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30: I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

The Withered Hand Restored

Matt 12:9-13

Mark 3:1-5

Luke 6:6-11

6: And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7: And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8: But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9: Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10: And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11: And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12: And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

Ps:147:3: He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

Ex:20:11: For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Ex:31:13: Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you.

Ex:31:14: Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

17: And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18: And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19: And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

Healing of the Centurion's servant

Matt 8:5-13

Luke 7:1-10

1: Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2: And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3: And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4: And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5: For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6: Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof:

7: Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8: For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9: When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10: And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

Ps 33:18-22

18 But the eyes of the LORD are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love,

19 to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.

20 We wait in hope for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

21 In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name.

22 May your unfailing love rest upon us, O LORD, even as we put our hope in you.

(NIV)

Exod 15:26

26 He said, "If you listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in his eyes, if you pay attention to his commands and keep all his decrees, I will not bring on you any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the LORD, who heals you."

(NIV)

Deut 32:39

39 "See now that I myself am He! There is no god besides me. I put to death and I bring to life, I have wounded and I will heal, and no one can deliver out of my hand.

(NIV)

1 Sam 2:4-7

4 "The bows of the warriors are broken, but those who stumbled are armed with strength.

5 Those who were full hire themselves out for food, but those who were hungry hunger no more. She who was barren has borne seven children, but she who has had many sons pines away.

6 "The LORD brings death and makes alive; he brings down to the grave and raises up.

7 The LORD sends poverty and wealth; he humbles and he exalts.

Mark 3:19-30

Luke 11:14-23

14: And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15: But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16: And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17: But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18: If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19: And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20: But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21: When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22: But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23: He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24: When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25: And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26: Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

Jesus stills the water

26: And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27: But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28: And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29: And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30: And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31: So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32: And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

Luke 8:26-39

26: And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27: And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28: When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29: (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30: And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31: And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32: And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33: Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34: When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35: Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36: They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37: Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38: Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39: Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

47: And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48: And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49: While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50: But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51: And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52: And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53: And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54: And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

Ps 139:13-18

13 For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

14 I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

15 My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place. When I was woven together in the depths of the earth,

16 your eyes saw my unformed body. All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

17 How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

18 Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand. When I awake, I am still with you.

Matt 17:14-21

Mark 9:14-29

Luke 9:37-43

Mark 9:14: And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15: And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16: And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17: And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18: And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19: He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20: And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21: And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22: And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23: Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24: And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25: When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26: And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27: But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28: And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29: And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

Money in the fish's mouth

Matt 17:24-27

24: And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25: He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26: Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27: Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

4 to him who alone does great wonders, His love endures forever.

Luke 17:11-19

11: And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12: And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

13: And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14: And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15: And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,

16: And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17: And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18: There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19: And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

Ps 30:1-4

1 I will exalt you, O LORD, for you lifted me out of the depths and did not let my enemies gloat over me.

2 O LORD my God, I called to you for help and you healed me.

3 O LORD, you brought me up from the grave; you spared me from going down into the pit.

4 Sing to the LORD, you saints of his; praise his holy name.

Opening the eyes of one born blind

John 9:1: And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2: And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3: Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4: I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5: As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6: When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7: And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8: The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9: Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10: Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11: He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12: Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13: They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14: And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15: Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16: Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17: They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18: But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19: And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20: His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21: But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22: These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23: Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24: Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25: He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26: Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27: He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28: Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29: We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30: The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31: Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32: Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33: If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34: They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35: Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36: He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37: And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38: And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39: And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

40: And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41: Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

Lazarus Raised from the Dead

Ps 107:20-21

20 He sent forth his word and healed them; he rescued them from the grave.

21 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men.

(NIV)

John 5:19-21

19 Jesus gave them this answer: "I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does.

20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, to your amazement he will show him even greater things than these.

21 For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son gives life to whom he is pleased to give it.

(NIV)

Rom 8:11

11 And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you.

(NIV)

John 11:1-54

1: Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

2: (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3: Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4: When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5: Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6: When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7: Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.

8: His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9: Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10: But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11: These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12: Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13: Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14: Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15: And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16: Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17: Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18: Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

19: And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20: Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21: Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22: But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23: Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24: Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25: Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27: She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28: And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29: As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30: Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31: The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32: Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33: When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34: And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35: Jesus wept.

36: Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37: And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38: Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39: Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40: Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41: Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42: And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43: And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44: And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45: Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

Woman with the spirit of infirmity cured

Luke 13:10-17

10: And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11: And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12: And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13: And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14: And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15: The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16: And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17: And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

Luke 14:1-6

1: And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2: And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3: And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4: And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5: And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6: And they could not answer him again to these things.

1 I cry aloud to the LORD; I lift up my voice to the LORD for mercy.

4 Look to my right and see; no one is concerned for me. I have no refuge; no one cares for my life.

5 I cry to you, O LORD; I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

Luke 18:35-43

35: And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36: And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37: And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38: And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

39: And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

40: And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him,

41: Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42: And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.

The Fig Tree

Isa 5:4-7

4 What more could have been done for my vineyard than I have done for it? When I looked for good grapes, why did it yield only bad?

5 Now I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge, and it will be destroyed; I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled.

6 I will make it a wasteland, neither pruned nor cultivated, and briers and thorns will grow there. I will command the clouds not to rain on it."

7 The vineyard of the LORD Almighty is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are the garden of his delight. And he looked for justice, but saw bloodshed; for righteousness, but heard cries of distress.

(NIV)

Matt 21:17-22

Mark 11:12-14 & 20-24

12: And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13: And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14: And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15: And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16: And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17: And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18: And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19: And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20: And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21: And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22: And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23: For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24: Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25: And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26: But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

Malchus's Ear

Luke 22:49-51

49: When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

Rom 12:19-13:2

19 Do not take revenge, my friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord.

20 On the contrary: "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head."

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13

1 Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God.

Rom 13:9-12

9 The commandments, "Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not covet," and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this one rule: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

10 Love does no harm to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

11 And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.

12 The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light.

22 "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth."

23 When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly.

24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.

3 Your troops will be willing on your day of battle. Arrayed in holy majesty, from the womb of the dawn you will receive the dew of your youth.

4 The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind: "You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek."

5 The Lord is at your right hand; he will crush kings on the day of his wrath.

Mark 16:6

Luke 24:6

John 20:1-8

1: The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2: Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3: Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4: So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5: And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6: Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7: And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8: Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

Acts 1:8: But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9: And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10: And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11: Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12: Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.
